Thanking you for past favors, I am, yours,

MIDDLEBURG.

Rev. W. G. Montgomery preached at the Christian church Sunday and Sunday night.

Farmers are gathering corn, which is of good yield and quality. New corn is selling at $2.25 delivered.

Why can't Casey have a game warden? Her upper sister counties have them, yet this county is and will continue to be the Mecca of the upper country sportsmen.

A rousing, wide-awake Parker and Davis and Stone club has lately been organized at Liberty, two prominent young attorneys at the head, Charles F. Montgomery, president, and E. C. Moore secretary.

Daniel Eason and Elisha Gifford, grandfather to the writer, returned on Saturday from a several days' visit to friends and relatives in Garrard. It was the first visit to Garrard that Grandpa had made to the county of his nativity for 60 years.

Born, to the wife of Mr. Geo. Davis, a Parker and Davis democrat; and to the wife of John Henderson, also of Dye, a democrat, if it hadn't been a girl. Another democrat has registered at Ethel McWhorter's, and still another at Aaron Coleman's.

Prof. D. Edgar Fogle, of Georgetown College, is with his parents and friends here. Prof. Fogle is an old Middleburg boy, but is now professor of languages in Georgetown College. He has just returned from Germany, where he spent the summer.

School at M. N. C. is progressing nicely under the able management of Prof. J. Sherman Lawhorn and his corps of assistants. Middleburg is deserving of and should have a good school, one worthy the confidence and patronage of Casey and adjoining counties.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mosler, of Gilbert Creek, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Short. Supt. J. C. Lay was in Somerset. Miss Lula Adams, who is teaching school at Celeste, spent Saturday and Sunday at home. Miss Lula Benson is down from Stanford to see her parents, Squire and Mrs. T. S. Benson.

Work will begin in earnest this week on the new home of the Farmers' Deposit Bank of Middleburg. Contracts have been let for the hauling of brick, stone, sand, etc., and the contractor, R. H. Casey, of New Castle, will return in a day or two with experienced brick layers, when the work will be pushed to an early completion.

A very interesting trial was held in Judge Benson's court in the city hall Saturday. Baker Wallis brought suit for damages against Jaulbert Falcober and Cornelius Floyd, all of the Waltons section, for "beating" and killing a hog of his. The plaintiff and defendants introduced quite a number of witnesses, but despite of that and the eloquent appeal and plea of E. C. Moore, of Liberty, the case was won for the plaintiff.

MATRIMONIAL.

James W. Voris and Miss Katie Johnson, both of the Burgin section, were married in Danville.

John Morgan and Miss Minnie Cundiff, both of the Danville section of Casey, were married Sunday.

Elsie Goodpastor, aged 20, and Miss Ermie B. Young, 19, were joined heart and hand at Andrew Young's yesterday.

Former Gov. Taylor's proposition to lecture for the McFerran Memorial church, Louisville, was rejected on account of his matrimonial record.

J. Walker Pinkerton, formerly of this place, was married recently to Miss Jennie Bassett, a recognized belle of Hearne, Texas. They will make their home at Mumfords, Texas.

Rev. T. H. Coleman officiated at three weddings last week at his home on Third Street. The couples were as follows: David H. Peyton and Miss Cinda Ellis, both of Powers, Casey county; J. Stanley Voris and Miss Kate Kee Johnson, both of Burgin, and Perry Foster and Miss Emma Barnes, of Perryville.—Advocate.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Is Pleasant to Take.

The finest quality of granulated loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it quite pleasant to take. Mr. W. L. Rodrick, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of this remedy, says, "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with my children for several years and can truthfully say it is the best preparation of the kind I know of. The children like to take it and it has no injurious after effect. For sale by all druggists."

Mrs. John Prather died at her home in the McCreary section of Garrard after a lingering illness, having suffered a stroke of paralysis about four months ago.

Rental paid to the city of Cincinnati amounted to $1,168,931. The balance standing to the credit of profits and loss at the end of the year was $268,955. Contract was made during the year for 2,400 large capacity freight cars, costing $1,541,389. Maintenance of way and structures show an increase of $308,661.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it, but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation is caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effects and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by all druggists.

In writing to have the address changed on his I. J., Mr. Eph W. Engleman, who now lives at Los Angeles, Cal., says: "This is a grand and great city; everything is on the boom. We are all enjoying good health, sunshine and flowers, but there is no place so dear as our old Kentucky home."

Jordan Bailey is dead in the Bestonia section of Mercer.

REV. J. W. HAGIN.

Who will leave the Christian church here Nov. 15th to accept a flattering call to the Fourth Street church in Covington. He had just been unanimously called to serve his fifth year as pastor of the Christian church and his resignation, which was read to his congregation Sunday, came as a disagreeable surprise. During the four years of his pastorate here Mr. Hagin has seen his church free itself of debt as well as of factional feeling and he leaves it in a most flourishing condition. Rev. Hagin is a splendid preacher, an excellent pastor, a scholarly gentleman and good citizen, and his departure from Stanford will cause general regret.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way Of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman, writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that they get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some on the dummy teat that the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President.

ALTON BROOKS PARKER,
of New York.

For Vice President.

HENRY G. DAVIS,
of West Virginia.

For Judge Fifth Appellate District,
JUDGE JAMES E. CANTRILL, Of Georgetown.

For Congress

GEORGE G. GILBERT,
of Shelby

MR. UREY WOODSON, secretary of the Democratic National Committee, gives out this good news, which let us pray there is no mistake about: "I have every confidence that Judge Parker will be elected. I have been here 100 days now and I am ready to announce from observation and what we have received that Parker is elected. All the doubtful States, so-called, will be in the democratic column and many of the States called purely republican are now in the doubtful column. We will carry New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Indiana, Maryland, West Virginia, Idaho, Colorado, Utah and Nevada. In other words, all the doubtful States are with us and for Parker's election. Illinois is doubtful. Ohio is even doubtful. The big men who controlled that State are now dead. The republicans assume they are going to win there, but we hear they might lose. Even California has sent good reports to us and we are hopeful of carrying that State. Maryland is certainly as democratic as Kentucky. West Virginia is as sure as Maryland."

A WEEK from to-day the battle of the ballots will be fought. The oldest resident can not recall quieter times just preceding a presidential election, and what it means we are at a loss to say. God grant that it is indicative of democratic success. While we feel hopeful of the election of Parker and Davis and absolutely certain of Kentucky going democratic, we are scared and worried about Lincoln county. Scared for fear the rade will carry it and worried that the democrats have not done more to prevent them from doing so. It is not too late yet to go to work and if every democrat will do his full duty from now until 4 o'clock next Tuesday afternoon all will be well and the good county will be saved from the enemy, the republicans.

"THE most remarkable function ever held in any city occurred here when seven white society women and twelve colored women met at the beautiful home of Mrs. Henry W. McGee on exact social equality. Luncheon was served to all alike by white waitresses under the direction of Mrs. McGee's beautiful daughter," says a Chicago dispatch. What does Teddy think of that? The discredit is directly due to the President, who started the social equality business by having Booker Washington dine with him in the White House.

BETTING is said to be the argument of a fool and it is also said that he who bets on a horse race usually walks home. Gamblers with more money than good sense are offering big odds on Roosevelt and the unthoughtful are more or less affected by it, forgetting that 15 days before the election 12 years ago the odds were 5 to 4 in favor of the president, but in the electoral college the president only got 145 votes against 277 for Mr. Cleveland. Sixteen years ago the odds were 10 to 7 in favor of the president and he was beaten.

NEWS comes from Washington that President Roosevelt is thinking of throwing precedent and dignity to the winds and jumping into the campaign himself in the hope of turning the tide of popular sentiment, which in the last few days has set strongly toward Parker and Davis in nearly all doubtful States, according to information reaching the White House from National Chairman Cortelyou and other sources. But even this undignified performance will be of no avail if the democrats will do their duty.

WITH New York and Maryland in line and New Jersey, Connecticut, West Virginia and Indiana debatable ground, who can truthfully say that the democrats have not more than a "fighting chance"? The gamblers of Wall Street are betting on Roosevelt the profits they have wrung from the people on watered stocks, but that is an old game and will not influence a single honest vote.

SENATOR FAIRBANKS did not deliver a speech at Charlestown, Ind., for the simple reason that there was no crowd to hear him. The coming of the special train had been advertised, but the voters did not appear.

"I WOULD rather go down in eternal oblivion than be instrumental in the election of Roosevelt," says William Jennings Bryan, and all good democrats say amen.

SENATOR SCOTT says West Virginia will go republican 20,000 to 25,000. But then Mr. Scott is a republican.

The case will be taken to the court of appeals. Terhune tried to get on the ballot by petition and it was claimed by Nichols that he did not secure the requisite number of signers.

THE most artistic musical evening Stanford has ever enjoyed will be the recital at Walton's Opera House Wednesday evening, Nov. 9th, in which the College of Music of Cincinnati will present Mr. Frederick J. Hoffmann, concert pianist and teacher of piano, and Mr. Carl M. Gantvoort, basso cantante and teacher of voice. Music lovers in our neighboring towns are securing seats to enjoy the music that will be given by these artists. Reserved seats 50 cents. On sale at McRoberts' drug store.

The attention that is being paid to the study of music in our town demands that we should employ a music critic. When we get rich we intend to engage one who knows what music is. We attend the musical performances in a blind, somewhat unappreciative way, enjoy them, but to write them up in suitable terms that a musician would use is beyond our ken. Never did we feel the need more keenly than in attempting to say something of the Recital given Friday evening last by Misses Virginia Bourne and Allie Huffman. The selections were bright, taking, not too long, well rendered and in every way pleasing. Every one remembers that these two young ladies took the prize for the best pianists at the State Tournament last summer. That of itself speaks louder than anything we can say in their praise. Mesdames A. G. Huffman, W. C. Shanks and Miss Nell Warren lent their aid to the evening's entertainment by each singing a pretty solo. Berta Jean Penny, the little whistler, out-whistled the whistlers. Lucy Lee Walton was called on at the last moment to fill out one of the numbers and sang in a childlike, unaffected manner. Miss Ballou may well be satisfied with this, the first of a series of recitals to be given by her class.

THE docket of the November term of court, which begins Monday, contains 56 Commonwealth cases, 29 old ordinary, 15 ordinary appearances, 21 equity appearances and 58 old equities.

CARSON.—Miss Nevil Carson, a splendid, christian lady of Brodhead, died of a complication of troubles and was buried Saturday. She was one of those kind-hearted, gentle women who was loved most by those who knew her best. Her friends here and elsewhere are saddened by her taking away. A large crowd attended the burial, attesting to some extent the love her people had for her.

DEAR MR. CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY OFFICE.—If you will set aside your race for just one week and spend the time working toward carrying Lincoln county democratic next Tuesday the voters will be more willing to bear your tale of woe and will love you far better. But if you persist in singing your praises and telling of your fitness for the office you aspire and continue to neglect the important election almost at hand, the democrats will turn a deaf ear to you and let the house dog entertain you instead of giving you the best they've got as they have been doing so long. A hint to the wise is sufficient. A VOTER bacco is about to fall from a lack of support from the growers. He says capitalists who were to back the movement have demanded that a showing be made by Nov. 5, and he calls for immediate response from the growers.

POLITICAL.

Indiana democrats are preparing to make the closing week of the campaign

the hottest in the history of Hoosier politics.

Senator Fairbanks addressed a fairly large crowd of Louisville republicans in the Horse Show building Saturday afternoon, being introduced by former

Gov. W. O. Bradley.

The indictments recently returned against the commissioners and officers of the Western Asylum for the Insane

at Hopkinsville have been dismissed

on demurrer by Judge Cook.

In addition to the speeches previously announced, it is stated that Judge

Parker will deliver an address in Jersey City, N. J., this week, and will also address the democratic rally in

Cooper Union, New York.

At a meeting of republicans at Covington resolutions were adopted condemning the action of Chairman Ernst

as tyrannical and stating that L. T. Applegate, the republican nominee for Congress in the Sixth district, does not deserve the support of any republican who stands for clean politics.
